My Holiday Trip

School had closed for the summer vacation, and I was very happy for the holidays. In the month of June, my parents decided to go on a family trip to the beautiful hill station of Darjeeling. My brother and I were very excited about the trip. Early in the morning, I woke up and packed my bag. Soon, we reached the railway station to catch a train to Siliguri. We travelled by train and enjoyed the journey very much. My brother was busy reading his storybook while I looked through the window and watched the beautiful scenery along the way. It felt as if I was moving with the train while the scenery moved backward. My parents were engaged in a lovely conversation. I clicked many pictures and took selfies while sitting on the train. Late in the evening, we arrived at the railway station.

1. Where did the family decide to go for their summer vacation?
2. In which month did the family trip take place?
3. How did the family travel to Siliguri?
4. What was the narrator's brother doing during the train journey?
5. What did the narrator see through the train window?

2. Look at the picture given below and write five sentences about this picture.

3. Arrange the words to make meaningful sentences
 - a. mangoes/ I/ like
 - b. school/ goes/ Raj/ to
 - c. have/ dress/ I/ new/ a
4. Write describing words for:
 - a. Elephant
